Richard Seiden
1958-2016

Richard Seiden and his family were an integral part of BARC's history and instrumental in helping BARC grow into what it is today. Richard worked at BARC most of his adult life and was a role-model and inspiration to all who knew him. Richard was the embodiment of a true Eagle Scout. He was honest, noble, helpful, compassionate and always wanted to expand his knowledge and experience of the world. Richard also enjoyed a good round of golf and it is with great pride that we name this tournament in honor of him.

About BARC & Society for Disabled Children

Bakersfield ARC (BARC) is a non-profit organization that has been providing essential job training, employment and support services in Kern County for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families since 1949. Proceeds from the tournament allow BARC to continue offering opportunities to these very deserving individuals.

Society for Disabled Children delivers programs and services that create growth opportunities for children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Camp Blue Jay is a rewarding program that the Society offers every year that allows children to gain new abilities and friendships in a summer camp setting.
